*Charges may be filed by two or more members of the Third or higher ranking Degree, a chapter president where a majority of a legal quorum of the chapter agrees to prefer charges, a chapter treasurer with respect to financial delinquency or a Chapter Adviser.

** In order to provide the accused brother with a fair opportunity to defend himself, the acts or omissions of the brother should be described with particularity. Continue on the back of this sheet, if necessary. Charges should only be preferred by those who have first hand knowledge of the acts charged or who are able to present evidence from those who have first hand knowledge.
